It will be built on Mauna Kea, Big Island 	10 minutes

- People are being vocal on their concerns of the 30 meter telescope, so we are trying to get student feedback on it
- Understands cultural aspect; Hawaiian people have a very deep connection with the stars and through the stars through navigation
- A Student Opinion: Personally in favor of telescope, Mauna Kea is a perfect beautiful place to view the stars because of its geographical location.
- A Student Opinion: Lived in Maui, and actually saw the telescope, it is really huge, it would bring so much traffic, feels like the environment would be an issue

VP John Morton Presentation

- Presented numbers from 2017-2018 academic year at where we stand
- The numbers show if we reached our goals such as how much students graduate, stem graduates, enrollment etc.. whether it increases or decreases
- We have a strategic plan to offset that
- Met one of our standards from STEM graduates, we met the goal
- Sustainability Efforts
 - Had a meeting with the sustainable committee thats coming together called

	CSCAI and they want to do a campus wide effort to be a better sustainable campus <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Wanted to bring back to the group to see what little things we can do, lie little habits to change that to be a more Eco friendly and sustainable campus ○ Think about it, and see if you have any ideas on what we can do as students to better the environment
Candidate Election	Moderated by Brissa Flores Member-at-Large Candidate <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Quinn Patrick O'Malley ● Wants to stay involved in Student Congress, made the decision to cut himself off from Ecology Club due to some conflict with the advisor ● Would still want to be involved with school and giving a voice What is the function of being a Member-at-Large? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● You are just required to come in meetings, they have voting rights and are equivalent to a voting member ● Feedback <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Always had a strong voice and opinion when it comes to issues ○ Excellent gentleman and works really hard on campus 	10 minutes

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Comes up with great ideas dealing with campus issues Motion: Dessa Lyn Millon Second: Carolyn Coke Voting: 13 in favor (unanimous) Now he's officially a Member-at-Large!

As for set general meeting times, he will set one up after all of the members register for classes BOSP <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● BOSP is a part of CSO, Nicole brought her BOSP Swag which were mini notebooks that also includes notepads attached inside. 	20 minutes

- In BOSP, you get the chance to showcase student talent, their mission is to give KCC student a platform to showcase their artwork, poems, etc.
- Work with the journals on campus, so if you wanna submit any research essays, art, photography, drawings whether its drawn or electronic they accept that
- You can submit any submissions for the creative journal and research journal by December 14, they're called Le'ahi and Ka Hue Anaha

BOSA

- BOSA is also a part of the CSO, Carrie is the Public Relations Officer and what she does is she makes flyers for events that come up
- Carrie brought in flyers of the upcoming Ice Cream Social happening this coming Monday on November 19 from 12-1:30pm
- Last semester's chair was working really hard working with Admin about not having classes during a certain time called the campus "common hour", and students will still be on campus and this way, BOSA will be able to host events.
- This will start this upcoming Spring semester that classes will not be scheduled on Mondays from 12pm to 1pm

- BOSA Arts and Crafts Event hosted by Carrie's sister, Kristen. You can come and their going to be making bow ties and hair bows and little felt holders for your headphones which will clip around your wrapped headphones, so they won't be tangled and it can look like a watermelon or strawberry
- Finals Survival Week from 6pm to midnight at Kamokila Student Center on December 10th-12th, you can come to study for finals, snacks and coffee will be provided
- Two more Ice Cream Socials are happening in December
